

Woodwinds

(Appreciation – 1/8)

Woodwinds - Vocab

Term	Definition
Woodwinds

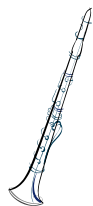

Woodwinds – Major Notes

Complete the notes about the woodwind family by filling in the blanks below:

- A. The woodwind family has two sub-groups:
 (1) _____ - flutes, piccolo, and recorder.
 (2) _____ - clarinets, oboe, bassoon, and (3) _____.
- B. (4) _____ are flute-like instruments with a whistle-like mouthpiece.
- C. Flutes and piccolos are (5) _____ horizontally and are played
 (6) _____ across the lip plate.
- D. When the flute’s column is (7) _____, the notes are (8) _____, and when the column is (9) _____, the notes are (10) _____.
- E. Clarinets and saxophones use (11) _____ reeds, while oboes and bassoons use (12) _____ reeds to make sound.
- F. (13) _____ are single-reed instruments that play a range of styles.
- G. The (14) _____ is the smallest double-reed and often plays (15) _____.

WORD BANK

Clarinet
 Double
 Flute
 Held Higher

Longer
 Lower
 Oboe
 Recorder
 Reeds

Saxophone
 Shorter
 Sideways Single Solos